BOATERS are offering a glimpse into life on the River Cam. Members of Camboaters, Cambridge's residential boating organisation, will be opening their hatches to the public to give everyone a taste of their alternative way of life. Boaters will welcome interested visitors on board between Jesus Lock and the footbridge over the river on Sunday, August 5, from noon to 4pm.

There will also be traditional boats on show, including Dutch barges, and music, free face-painting for children, and a jumble sale with a nautical theme.
